TO: Garnishee, Arthur Engelland & Associates, 39
South La Salle Street, Chicago, IL 60603

An application for a Writ of Continuing Garnishment against property of the above-named defendant, James W. Reed, has been filed with this Court by the United States of America.

A judgment was entered in favor of the United States of America and against the defendant on April 15, 1999, for monetary impositions. As of January 26, 2007, the balance on this judgment debt was $447,997.08 in principal, interest and penalties. Interest on the principal balance is accruing from April 15, 1999, at the rate of 4.727% per annum.

You, Arthur Engelland & Associates, the garnishee, are required by law to immediately withhold and retain any property in your custody, control or possession in which the judgment debtor, James W. Reed, has a substantial non-exempt interest. It is unlawful for you to pay or deliver to the defendant any item attached by this Writ. You are to take this action pending further order of the above-referenced court.

Under the law, there is property which is exempt from this Writ of Continuing Garnishment. A listing of such property is enclosed (see Claim for Exemption Form).

You, the garnishee, are required by law to answer this Writ of Continuing Garnishment, in writing, under oath, within ten (10) days of your receipt of this Writ. In the Answer of the Garnishee, you must indicate whether you have in your custody, control, or possession, property in which this judgment debtor has a substantial non-exempt interest, providing a description of such property and an indication of the judgment debtor's interest in it.

You, the garnishee, are required by law to mail or deliver in person, within 10 days, the original, signed and notarized Answer of the Garnishee to the Clerk of the United States District Court, 202 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415. Additionally, you are required by law to mail or deliver in person a copy of the completed Answer of the Garnishee to the debtor, at James W. Reed, XXXXX, Chicago, IL 60660; and to counsel for the United States, at the United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, 600 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415.

If you fail to answer this Writ of Continuing Garnishment, or if you fail to withhold property in accordance with this Writ, the United States of America may petition the Court for an order requiring you to appear before said Court and show good cause why you failed to comply with this Writ. Failure to appear before the Court or failure to show good cause for your noncompliance with this Writ may result in the Court entering a judgment against you. That judgment would be in the amount of the judgment debtor's nonexempt interest in the property in your custody, control or possession that is subject to this garnishment, up to the outstanding debt balance, plus attorney fees.

You are hereby notified that your earnings are being garnished by the United States of America, which obtained a judgment on April 15, 1999, in the sum of $278,211.86, plus interest and costs as a result of criminal monetary impositions. As of January 26, 2007, a balance of $447,997.08 in principal, interest and penalties remained outstanding on this debt.

In addition, you are hereby notified that there are exemptions under the law which may protect some of the property from being taken by the Government if you, James W. Reed, can show that the exemptions apply. Enclosed is a summary of the federal exemptions which apply in most situations.

If you are James W. Reed, you have a right to ask the court to return your property to you if you think the property the Government is taking qualifies under one of the enclosed exemptions or if you think you do not owe the money to the United States Government that it says you do.

If you want a hearing, you must notify the court within 20 days after you receive this notice. You must make your request in writing and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the United States District Court at 202 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415. If you wish, you may use this notice to request the hearing by checking the box below and mailing this notice to the Clerk of the United States District Court in Minneapolis, Minnesota. You must also send a copy of your request to the Government, through the United States Attorney, Financial Litigation Unit, 600 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415, so the Government will know you want a hearing. The hearing will take place within 5 days after the Clerk receives your request, if you ask for it to take place that quickly, or as soon after that as possible.

At the hearing you may explain to the judge why you believe the property the Government has taken is exempt or why you think you do not owe the money to the Government.

If you think you live outside the Federal judicial district in which the court is located, you may request, not later than 20 days after you receive this notice, that this proceeding to take your property be transferred by the court to the Federal judicial district in which you reside. You must make your request in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the United States District Court at 202 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415. You must also send a copy of your request to the Government, through the United States Attorney, Financial Litigation Unit, 600 Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415, so the Government will know you want the proceeding to be transferred.

Be sure to keep a copy of this notice for your own records. If you have any questions about your rights or about this procedure, you should contact a lawyer of your choosing or an office of public legal assistance. The Clerk of Court is not permitted to give legal advice.
